Connecticut Vital Records — Index of Marriages, 1897-2001

This index allows researchers to find the name, place and date of marriage for couples who were married in Connecticut between 1897 through 2001. The information from this index can be used to request a copy of a marriage certificate from the Town/City Clerk of the municipality listed in the search results. Order forms for vital records requests can be found at this link.

There is no guarantee that the information contained in the index is accurate and the State of Connecticut has no legal liability for any claims resulting from reliance on this information.

Enter the information you have for each field below. You can use full or partial spelling of names (partial spellings may yield more results —as many first name entries use only the first four or five letters of the name).

Clerk,

Theo. L. Moody,

State of Connecticut)

County of Fairfield { Danbury April 30th 1849

Be it known that on this day and year afore-said personally appeared before the Court of Probate within and for the District of Danbury in said county and state the same being a Court of Record Ada Taylor of said Danbury in said District County and state aged eighty years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on her oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions of the Act of Congress passed February 2^d 1848

That she is the widow of Samuel Taylor late of said Danbury deceased who was a Private and Musician in the army of the Revolution and served during the Revolutionary war as a private soldier and musician in the continental line under the command of the officers specified and named in the original declaration of the said Samuel Taylor now on file in the office of the Commissioner of Pensions in the War Department and for the several terms and periods of time mentioned in the said declaration and inasmuch as she has no personal knowledge of the various particulars relative to his said service - of the several times when his terms of service commen-ced and ended or the names of the officers under whom he served - of the country through which he marched or of the battles in which he was engaged she refers to said original decla-ration for a more particular description thereof - That said Samuel Taylor was a Revolutionary Pensioner of the United States from the eighteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty one to the time of his death at the rate of thirty ~~two~~ eight dollars and sixty six cents per annum - said Taylor receiving back pay from the 4th day of March 1831 - which said pension was granted to him for the services afo. said - and she refers for proof of such facts to the evidence accompanying his said original declaration also on file in the office of said Commissioner of Pensions - She further declares that she was married to the said Sam-uel Taylor previous to the 1st day of January to wit on the sixth day of March ~~1831~~ ^{eighteen hundred} for proof of which said marriage she refers to her accompanying affidavit of Waters, H. Olmstead of said Danbury who is the Town Clerk of said Town of Danbury. She further declares that the said Samuel Taylor died on the twenty sixth day of October 1848 at said Danbury and for proof of his said death she refers to the accompanying certificate of the Court of Probate for the District of Danbury within said county of Fairfield and State of Connecticut. She further declares that she has never intermarried since the death of said Samuel Taylor but still continues to be the widow of the said Samuel Taylor as will more fully appear by reference to the proof hereto annexed
